

Title: Surveys Technical Coordinator	Effective Date: May 11, 2012	Grade: XV	Job Category: Technician
Prior Title: Surveys Technical Coordinator	Prior Effective Date: October 18, 2010	Grade: XV	Page: 1 of 1

CHARACTERISTICS OF WORK

This position is responsible for assisting in the coordination, training, implementation, and support of the various software programs used by the Surveys Division related to design and land survey data collection and processing, computer aided drafting and design (CADD) and GIS, as well as supervision of the Surveys Division office technical staff.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

The following examples are intended only as illustrations of various types of work performed. No attempt is made to be exhaustive. Related, similar, or other logical duties are performed as assigned. The Department may require employees to perform functions beyond those contained in job descriptions. The Department may modify job descriptions based on Department needs. The Arkansas State Highway and Transportation Department is an "at will" employer.

- Review, process, analyze, and compile survey field data for use by the Department.
- Assist in implementing CADD and GIS software.
- Provide final products from CADD and GIS.
- Provide training and support for the survey data management system, CADD, and GIS software.
- Coordinate, assign, and review the work of the office technical staff.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

The educational equivalent to a bachelor's degree in related field from an accredited college or university, and:

- (A) Three years experience equivalent to a Civil Engineer III or above. An applicant with an Engineer Intern certification will be granted up to two years experience. OR;
- (B) Three years experience as a Surveys Crew Chief equivalent or higher position.

OR, the educational equivalent to a diploma from an accredited high school, and:

(A) Survey intern (SI) with six or more years experience in highway route surveying and/or land surveying of a character indicating to the Division Head of Surveys that the applicant may be competent at this position. The Division Head of Surveys may grant an applicant with educational courses in engineering or surveying up to two years experience for his/her education, OR;

(B) Ten or more years experience, of which at least five years are at a Surveys Crew Chief level or above, in highway route surveying and/or land surveying of a character indicating to the Division Head of Surveys that the applicant may be competent at this position. The Division Head of Surveys may grant an applicant with educational courses in engineering or surveying up to two years experience for his/her education.

Knowledge of surveying principles and practices and proficiency in calculations for highway route locations. Three years experience scheduling work assignments, providing training and support and supervising office computer technicians.

("Accredited" means the educational institution or program is accredited by an accrediting organization recognized either by the United States Department of Education or by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.)

