ARKANSAS STATE BICYCLE AND PEDESTRIAN TRANSPORTATION PLAN OPEN FOR PUBLIC REVIEW

LITTLE ROCK (9-16) – The Arkansas State Highway and Transportation Department, in conjunction with Arkansas State Parks and Tourism, Arkansas State Police and the Arkansas Department of Health have announced that the 2015 update of the Arkansas State Bicycle and Pedestrian Transportation Plan is now available for public review and comment.

The new plan addresses State policies related to bicycling and walking, as well as the development of roads, trails, sidewalks and other infrastructure that serves pedestrians and bicyclists.

The plan serves as a blueprint for State agencies, local governments and other organizations to work toward improving the environment for bicyclists and pedestrians.

Planning partners, project stakeholders and members of the public are invited to provide comments in one of three ways:

1. Via the project website at www.ArkansasBikePedPlan.com
2. Directly emailing Bike-Ped@ahtd.AR.gov
3. By mailing a written request to:

Arkansas State Bicycle and Pedestrian Transportation Plan
Transportation Planning and Policy Division
Arkansas State Highway and Transportation Department
P.O. Box 2261
Little Rock, AR 72203

Comments will be received by the Department through October 9th, 2015.
