Improvements to State Highway 18 Require Lane Closures in Jonesboro

CRAIGHEAD COUNTY (6-23) – Resurfacing portions of State Highway 18 (Southwest Drive & Highland Drive) will require lane closures in Jonesboro, according to Arkansas State Highway and Transportation (AHTD) officials.

Weather permitting; the following closures will be in place daily between 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. starting on Monday, June 26 and the work is expected to take approximately four weeks.

- State Highway 18 (Highland Drive) will have alternating lanes closed from Southwest Drive to Redwolf Boulevard as the asphalt is removed and repaved.
- State Highway 18 (Southwest Drive) will have alternating lane closures that start in the northbound lane between Interstate 555 and Highland Drive. This work includes repairing the base and removing and repaving the asphalt. All lanes of Southwest Drive will be repaved.

Traffic will be controlled using warning signs and traffic cones. Drivers should exercise caution when approaching and traveling through all highway work zones.
