ARDOT Opens Traveler Information Call Center to Assist Motorists Navigate Arkansas Highways during Historic Flooding

LITTLE ROCK (5-28) – The Arkansas Department of Transportation (ARDOT) proactively opened a Traveler Information Call Center to assist motorists navigate around flooded highways throughout Arkansas.

ARDOT’s Traveler Information Call Center opened at 3:00 p.m. today, May 28, and is available by voice or text at (501) 569-2374 daily between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. The Traveler Information Call Center is located at ARDOT’s Central Offices and staffed by Department personnel volunteering for 4 hours at a time, minimally impacting their daily duties.

“We always recommend motorists check IDriveArkansas.com before leaving home,” said ARDOT Director Scott Bennett. “Opening the Traveler Information Call Center as this historic flood makes its way through the State just gives more opportunities for motorists to plan their travel through Arkansas in a safe and efficient manner.”
